Startupland: How Three Guys Risked Everything to Turn an Idea into a Global Business (Hardback)

By Mikkel Svane, Alexander Aghassipour, Morten Primdahl

John Wiley Sons Inc, United States, 2015. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 236 x 157 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The real story of what it takes to risk it all and go for broke. Conventional wisdom says most startups need to be in Silicon Valley, started by young engineers around a sexy new idea, and backed by VC funding. But as Mikkel Svane reveals in Startupland, the story of founding Zendesk was anything but conventional. Founded in a Copenhagen loft by three thirty-something friends looking to break free from corporate doldrums, Zendesk Inc. is now one of the hottest enterprise software companies, still rapidly growing with customers in 150 countries. But its success was anything but predestined. With revealing stories both funny and frank, Mikkel shares how he and his friends bravely left secure jobs to start something on their own, how he almost went broke several times, how they picked up themselves and their families to travel across the world to California and the unknown, and how the three friends were miraculously still together for Zendesk's IPO and (still growing) success. Much like Zendesk's mission itself to remove friction, barriers, and mystery in order to...
