When dealing with a problem the objective is to get rid of the problem so that the problem will not be a problem anymore. This is the law of common sense. Anybody can talk about a condition but only the intelligent works to cure it. For instance: our lost black nation. We all can talk about the obviousness of our current chaotic condition. We all can talk about our bleak history and make it sound appealing to ourselves. We can do this over and over for another four hundred years. But where is the cure? No doubt there are heavy barriers holding us back. But the worst barriers are the barriers that we ourselves have been trained to become. Inside of my book, From Black to Free, I not only point out our problems but I also present a cure. A cure that would unlock spiritual freedom, peace, unity and wealth; and not only for yourself but for the rest of us. Throughout the pages of this book I will challenge your thinking on whatever you think you know about this fake ass world. Now, I'm not going to tell you that we are living in the serpent's world. I'm sure you got that tid bit figured out by now. But I'm going to go one up on you. I'm going to prove to you how, and why, we have been worshiping the serpent all along. Paradise, and hell, has been closer than you think.
