Excerpt: .acquaintance with the author. --Francis W. Shepardson, Professor of History in the University of Chicago. I am delighted with the thoroughly scholarly way in which it has been put together and I know enough about the subject to appreciate what it has cost you in time and effort to perform this work. --Dr. Robert E. Park. It is the story of the effort on the part of certain agencies to educate the Negro. It is above all the story of the strivings of the Negro himself under tremendous difficulties and opposition, to learn things, to-know more, to be more. Apart from the fund of information on the subject which Dr. Woodson has here offered, the supreme point of this study is the unconquerable will of the Negro. The book, as a whole, is an illumination of the recent development of education among the colored people. --The...
