Ivan Shall I see thee no more in all the years That loom as dark and threatening clouds above My wintry head, that o'er the future hang As black, appalling night of deepest gloom; Nor hear thy deep and loving voice again As once it sounded low, affectionate, And sweet as solemn bells at morn that peal Across the hills and gloomy forests green To smiling vales, in echoes o'er and o'er. Where art thou now, my only son - Ivan, In thy proud youth more beautiful and strong, More glorious than the brightest herald Of days ascending reign, as angel bright, Who stands upon the distant mountain peak. In yonder placid river flowing calm And mournfully reflecting in its deep, Unfathomed still and cold the sombre sky Of mom which slowly creeps o'er mountain far And dimly shining walls of castle high Of Altenstein, I seem to see the azure hue Of thy mysterious eyes which ever shone Upon me in their true and filial love. Strong in the...
