For the Philanthropist. Citizen, when I consider how great has been, and still is, the rage for persecution of those whose actions and sentiments, happen to be anti-ministerial, and what shameful, what absurd constructions ministers have attempted to place upon words and expressions, in order to make them treasonous or seditious* when there has been not the least pretext for such constructions, but were evidently designed to keep the minds of the people in awe and subjection, and to prevent that candid, open investigation of truth and justice, whereby they would be brought to a proper sense of their own rights, and the Minister...
