

Dream of the Archer (Paperback)

By Linda Ciletti

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Linda Ciletti (illustrator). 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . An exciting historical [time travel] romance from the period of Robin Hood with many twists and turns along the way. Amazon Review Lenore travels to England to fulfill her grandfather's dying wish to visit his homeland. In her grandfather's stead, she drags her good friend, Jack, along with her. Their hike through Sherwood Forest, however, takes a bad turn when a strange weather anomaly transports them to a Sherwood far denser than the one they'd set out in. Separated from Jack and wounded trying to escape the most authentically dressed medieval re-enactors she had ever seen, Lenore finds herself at the mercy of the archer who impaled her attackers, then chased her down. Damian suffers recurrent dreams of an angel calling him to his death. Seeing a strangely clothed lad stumbling along the woodland path, he watches from a distance. When the Woodward confronts the lad and pulls his hair free from its tie, Damian realizes this lad is not a lad at all, but rather the angel from his dreams....
