

Africa's Recovery in the 1990s: From Stagnation and Adjustment to Human Development

By Hoeven, Rolph Van der (Editor)

Palgrave Macmillan, UK, 1992. Softcover. Book Condition: New. First Edition. 400 Pages. While the design of adjustment policies in the latter part of the 1980s has generally shown greater attention to their impact on growth and social implications, this book argues that several orthodox adjustment policies are still incongruent with long-term development in Africa. It goes on to discuss a development strategy which could lead to a much awaited economic recovery and improvement in social conditions in Africa in the 1990s drawing its conclusions from a general theoretical discussion and national case-studies.
