Government Accountability Office, 2006 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)66909721 Subject: Identification numbers, Personal -- United States. Excerpt: . . . Some banks contract out services, such as Internet banking, check imaging, telephone banking, and debit and ATM processing services. Officials from a securities firm told us that they contracted with software data vendors for the development and maintenance of specific data products. Tax preparation representatives told us that some individual tax preparers may contract with or use electronic return originators 9 ( EROs ). Some financial sector regulators and industry representatives had conducted surveys to determine the types of services being contracted by the financial services industry. In 2004, economists from the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City, Missouri, found that certain types of banks relied on third-party vendors to provide an array of services, 10 such as electronic banking and payment processing. In addition, NYSE and NASD conducted a joint survey in 2004 of a select number of their members. The survey revealed that some of their member firms routinely contracted out accounting, finance, administrative, and information technology functions....
