Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Macmillan s Progressive French Course: II Second Tear, Containing an Elementary Grammar, With Copious Exercise, Notes, and Vocabularies The ever-increasing calls for new Editions of this Class-book, so far from justifying the compiler in resting on his oars, put him under the obligation of bringing it still nearer to the wants of teachers and students - succes oblige. The fundamental principle underlying the whole Course - theory and practice running in parallel lines throughout - remains unaltered. The order of the Lessons, too, and the colloquial character of the Exercises, having now stood successfully the severe test of twelve years practical work in hundreds of classrooms, have been left untouched. In those few points of detail, however, where the subject-matter clearly seemed to call for more careful and lucid exposition, the pruning hook has been applied with unsparing hand. The Appendices have been considerably enlarged - not because it is deemed expedient to burden the pupil s memory with long lists of unusual words (many of which will not be wanted in a lifetime)
